Arab Nations Mobilizing Armies for War on Jews If Holy Land Seizure Attempted

Resistance Committee Urges Action to Block Mobilization

By Robert Manning

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 10.—(BUP)—The Palestine resistance committee called on the United States and the 10 other nations of the United Nations Security Council today to block the mobilization of Arab armies that had an "impending Arab invasion" of Palestine.

The committee, an American group which raises funds and material for the Jewish underground of Palestine, asked the Security Council to charge Syria and Lebanon with "openly planning a war of aggression" against the Jews of the Holy Land.

The group appealed directly to Secretary of State George C. Marshall to "take the initiative" in throwing the weight of the UN against the announced raising of Arab troops along the Holy Land frontier.

There appeared to be little chance that the Palestine resistance group would succeed in bringing the Arab states' mobilization for action before the Security Council but the development added to the urgency of the United Nations general assembly's deliberations over the future of the Holy Land.

THE JEWISH AGENCY for Palestine, official representatives of Palestine's 650,000 Jews, issued a statement today, "more blunt and bluffer" and served notice that it would not take them seriously.

The agency called on the general assembly to disregard "the threatening actions in the Middle East" and "not permit itself to be intimidated into appeasing those."

Balkan Set-Up "Abnormal"

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 10.—(CP)—Russia and her associates in the United Nations yesterday angrily condemned the majority move to establish a Greek-Balkan border commission and bluntly declared they would boycott it.

RUSSIA, as one of the Big Five powers, was named as a member in the tentative list of countries to take up the body assigned the task of maintaining peace in the Balkans.

Wary supporters of the majority in the political committee said, at adjournment, that they would go along without Russia and her friends and try Friday to set up the commission.

Yesterday's developments provoked a "jolt" in the committee.

To Be Hanged

DACHAU, Germany, Oct. 10.—IN A STATEMENT THE PRIME MINISTER said that through the Princess Alice, the Countess of Athlone, it had been learned that Princess Elizabeth was in need of silver for setting up house and would particularly welcome silver for her table.

The cabinet has accordingly authorized Princess Alice, on behalf of the Canadian government, to make a selection of antique silver which will accord with the personal wishes of the Princess.

Mr. King said the government had decided to present Princess Elizabeth with a mink coat of Canadian wild mink skins which will be of Canadian workmanship.

RETRIT, Oct. 10.—(BUP)—Government sources said tonight that 25,000 Syrian and Lebanese troops were massed along the Palestine border, and would go into action if the Jews tried to seize Palestine by force after the British withdrawal.

A LEBANESE government spokesman emphasized that the troops massing in the border area facing Palestine was not prompted by "aggressive" intentions. The 10,000 Syrian and 15,000 Lebanese soldiers will strike only if the Jews move to take over Palestine, the official source said.

The statement clarified a mass of reports that troops of five Arab countries were marching on Palestine ready to intervene in case of friction between Arabs and Jews in that country.

THE BRITISH government of Palestine denied that anything was known of Arab troop movements along the northern border. The denial was one of many refuting the flood of rumors about converging armies.

Abdul Rahman Azam Pasha, the secretary general of the Arab League, who earlier said Egypt had ordered troops to the frontier of south Palestine, said tonight there would be no major developments within the foreseeable future.

Azam said the next step depend-

U.S. to State Its Policy

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 10.—(BUP)—The United States announced today amid reports of the mobilization of Arab armies that it would break its long silence and declare its stand tomorrow on the question of partitioning Palestine into Arab and Jewish states.

The long-awaited American policy statement—probably the key to whether there will be a Jewish state in the Holy Land—will be delivered to the United Nations general assembly's Palestine committee by Herschel V. Johnson, one of the chief U.S. delegates. Secretary of State George C. Marshall, who has hesitated for weeks about the stand the United States will take, will not appear before the 37-nation committee to deliver his decision in person.

The American policy has been kept hushy since but there have been several reliable signs that Marshall has decided to give mild support to the proposed partition of the land into Arab and Jewish states.

Berchel Johnson, American delegate who has softened the Greek-Balkan resolution by putting aside the clause holding Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia guilty of aiding the Greek guerrillas, was obviously disappointed.

"THIS IS A MATTER of real importance," he said, "and Russia's leadership in boycotting the conference is a move toward peace in the Balkans."

Past Henry Spook, veteran British statesman who has supported the United States and suffered attacks from the Slav press, said he "was not going to be frightened" into changing his attitude.

Czechoslovakia, which has often shown a degree of independence in relation to Russia, went along with Vlahinsky yesterday on the Balkan question.

Vlahinsky said the American resolution, which was subject of much voice Wednesday in which he and his Slav associates stood close was "anomalous."

"IT HAS NO HEAD nor tail," he said, "and if this keeps up the day may come when we will all be without heads or tails."

Elsewhere in the UN yesterday the special committee on Palestine heard an outspoken protest from Palestine, several members, over the reluctance of the United States and Russia to state their position on the proposal to partition the Holy Land as between Jews and Arabs.

Saturday was named as the time limit for speakers to get their names on the list and the American statement may be given then. Russia is waiting for the United States to speak first.

Three Injured In Street Accident

Three persons were injured and two cars and a house damaged as a result of an intersection collision at 100 avenue and 107 street about 8 a.m. Friday.

John George Buchanan, 1078 83 avenue, told police he was driving along on 100 avenue and when about to enter the intersection of 107 street, he saw an auto approaching from the north, he said he applied the brakes but could not avoid colliding with the other vehicle.

Police said Archie G. Smith, 907 80A street, was travelling south on 107 street, he saw an auto approaching, he swerved to the left, then following the collision his car carried on across the sidewalk into the side of a house at 100B 100 street.

Mrs. Gladys Price, 953 90A street, a passenger with Smith, suffered a bump on the head and shock, while Smith had two cuts on the right hand and another on the forehead. A woman in bed in the house was also suffering from shock.

Both cars were badly damaged, while the foundation of the house also sustained considerable damage.

"IT HAS NO HEAD nor tail," he said, "and if this keeps up the day may come when we will all be without heads or tails."

Six room houses. The payments more closely approximate the normal tax rate.

"Provision will be made that in the event of sale of the unit by the Dominion, the municipality will share equally with the Dominion the cost of the investment by the Dominion," he said.

"AMORTIZATION will be at the rate of 2 1/2 per cent per annum. The provision in the wartime housing agreement permitted the municipality to purchase units for sale to the Dominion at a price of 10 per cent of the cost of the unit.

"In the event of the project continuing on a rental basis after the war, the Dominion has amortized the actual capital value, then the municipality will share equally with the Dominion the net rental proceeds."

Mr. Howe said that projects of this kind cannot be developed by the Dominion alone. The 1948 program to provide a large number of units for the Dominion is dependent upon the co-operation of the municipalities and the provinces.

"THIS TIME we mean business," said sources within the Dominion's Arab League, which is holding a special meeting on the Palestine question. "If the British government and the Jews lift a finger, we will be ready to enter Palestine to defend Arab rights."

These sources said any attempt by the United Nations to solve the Palestine question by any method other than declaring it an independent Arab nation would be opposed by United Arab forces. The UN general assembly is expected to make a decision on the special UN committee on Palestine which recommended the partitioning of the Holy Land into Jewish and Arab and Jewish states.

"THE EGYPTIAN, Syrian and Lebanese governments ordered their troops to march upon the recommendation of the UN League, a loose federation of the Arab states. At the same time, the League urged countries bordering on Palestine to allow the movement through them of troops from nations which do not have common frontiers with the Holy Land."

If the UN's solution of the Palestine issue prescribes a state between Arabs and Jews, it could well be the bloodiest chapter in the Holy Land's long history. Palestine alone there are 1,000,000 Arabs to 600,000 Jews.

Jerusalem, Oct. 10.—(UPI)—The underground organization Hagana said today that the reported Arab troop movement toward Palestine was designed primarily to bring pressure on the United Nations but to partition the Holy Land.

These reports said the British had been ordered for four days. It had been because of the cholera epidemic, but it was said now that it was to allow the Saudi Arabian to cross the Jordanian border.

A BEIRUT newspaper quoted Arab League officials that Trans-Jordan troops already were massed on Palestine's eastern border.

Goes to Ottawa

There will be no plebiscite at the New 1 minute election on the question of eliminating property qualifications for candidates. It is a recommendation of the N. E. committee is accepted by city council.

Opposition to the elimination of property qualification was voiced by F. W. Hare and G. W. Hare, representatives of the Edmonton Property Owners Association. They suggested that the qualification should be increased rather than decreased.

Mr. Hare stated there was marked opposition to the abolition of the property qualification, while the question was submitted to the electors in 1935. He said the vote against abolition was 14,478 and for, 4,302.

He submitted the question of property qualification or its alternative, a five year residence qualification, were not matters for a plebiscite, but should be dealt with by the council.

Ald. A. Blais, C. expressed the opinion that change in election qualifications should be decided by the council rather than by a plebiscite, and moved that no plebiscite be held on the question this year, but that the committee consider its studies of the question.

At the time of the election, the committee held the opinion that the qualification should be increased to a five year residence clause to the present property qualification.

Real Test of UN May Come Soon

By ROSS MUNRO

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—(CP)—The real test of whether or not the United Nations will hold together may come over the next few weeks during the debate on the United States proposal that an "interim assembly" be created in an effort to give some new effectiveness to the organization, according to sources here in touch with UN affairs.

A STORMY debate is expected on this proposal, likely to be advanced formally by the Americans next week at Lake Success. Canada will back the UN.

There is strong opposition to the proposal from the Soviet Union and her supporting states in Eastern Europe but despite this opposition it is expected here that the "interim assembly" scheme will receive the necessary two-thirds majority.

The danger for the future of UN will then lie in what attitude Russia and her supporters would adopt in the event the proposal is adopted.

They may refuse to serve on the "interim assembly" and this would be coming very close to a real split in the UN.

SOURCES here indicate that most delegations in New York have abandoned formerly-held ideas that progress can be made with the UN by compromise and concessions.

These tactics haven't paid off and now the majority of representatives have come to the conclusion they should declare themselves in support of what they think is right and stick by their decisions, letting the Russians and the others do what they want about it.

Australia Expects Record Wheat Crop

OTTAWA, Oct. 10.—(CP)—The Australian information office said yesterday that Australia will harvest a bumper crop this year, probably an all-time record of 240,000,000 bushels. Last year 118,000,000 bushels were reaped.

This year's crop has been estimated at 20 bushels to an acre.

Canada's crop this year is averaged at 32,000,000 bushels compared with 240,000,000 last year.

700 Cars Wheat Are Moved Daily

CALGARY, Oct. 10.—(CP)—An average of 700 cars of wheat are being moved daily from Canadian grain-producing areas and there is only slight delay because of the shortage of box cars. R. C. Vaughan, CMG, of Montreal, chairman and president of Canadian National Railways, said in Calgary yesterday.

SANTA-TIME NEARS

CULPIN, Ont.—(CP)—Guelph children may be able to see old Saint Nick right here this Christmas instead of going to Toronto and other larger centres for a glimpse of a Santa Claus parade if present plans go well. The Junior Board of Trade, at their first full meeting voted to endorse the idea of a parade at a new project for the coming months.

Fire Damages Calgary Oil Well

This mysterious oil well in Calgary was damaged by fire yesterday with loss estimated at more than $5,000. Between 20 and 25 barrels of oil are pumped daily from a spring-fed water well. Source of the oil is unknown, although a creek near by has thick oil slicks.

Sex-Life Evidence Found Among Germs

By Howard W. Blakeslee
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 10.—(AP)—By producing bacteria with digestive troubles, Yale University micro-biologists have found some of the first reliable evidence of sex life among germs.

The studies were made by Dr. Edward L. Tatum, professor of microbiology and Joshua Lederberg of the department of botany and microbiology.

These bacteria, Escherichia coli, are single cells of tissue. Each cell is shaped like a rod. Scientists have supposed there was no sex life in simple organism and that sex began higher up the scale.

But the Yale evidence indicates that under some circumstances, such as trying to cope with nutritional troubles, two of these cell organisms may unite. In that union two rods may fuse. This fusing may be like the union in human reproduction where children come from the fusion of two single cells, one from the father, the other from the mother.

The cell germs got their digestive troubles from exposure to X-rays, ultraviolet or sunken light or wartime mustard gas. Any of these exposure causes mutations, which are hereditary changes. After such a mutation the germ lost its ability to make either one of the vitamins it needed or a protein acid necessary for growth.

The bacterium so altered became the parent of a new strain, all defects in the same manner. This parent didn't have any sex. It reproduced simply by dividing into two rods, and these two into four, and so on.

Next some cell germs that had different digestive trouble were introduced into the colony. Thereupon sex made its appearance.

The cell bacteria that came from this sexual fusion no longer had the digestive trouble. Inheritance, from the parent rods, had given them the abilities of both and one of these was the nutritional ability that had been missing from one partner.

Altogether, the Yale experimenters produced about 40 different kinds of hereditary deficiencies that would restore the lost abilities. With so many different hereditary and experimented with the unions, they reduced the possibility that anything except a primitive type of sexual fusion could account for the restorations.

In this sex life the germs follow a principle that is supposed to account for the origin of all sex, namely that the contributions of two parents produce a better animal than those from one.

No Further Boosts Egg Contract Price

SASKATOON, Oct. 10.—(CP)—S. C. Barry of the poultry products board, said yesterday there would be no further increase in egg contract prices because possible increased costs of production. The British are in a difficult financial position and when they agreed to the last advances made it clear that that was the limit to which they could go. He told the convention of the Canadian Federation of Hatchery Associations Mr. Barry said egg producers could increase their returns by greater efficiency in operation and concentrating on the production of higher-grade eggs.

Belgium to New Zealand In 75-Horsepower Plane

AUCKLAND, N.Z., Oct. 10.—Farmer Harry Newton came home today as nonchalantly as if he had taken a stroll around his back yard.

The 30-year-old New Zealander had just concluded a unique 22-day "expedition" trip, from Belgium to New Zealand.

Unable to obtain sea passage home, Newton, a former night fighter pilot, worked in a Belgian aircraft factory until he was able to buy a plane. Then he set off casually, obtaining permits to fly from one airfield to the next across Europe, the Middle East and South-east Asia.

After leaving Brisbane in his plane, which had the lowest horsepower of any aircraft to attempt to fly the Tasman Sea, one of the stunts securing the engine cooling system, Newton made an emergency landing on the beach of Lord Howe Island, made repairs and took off immediately. "If you don't tell him—I will!"

HOW EMBARRASSING THAT WHISPER WAS!

"I was talking to a small group at a club meeting. Then I heard someone whisper 'B.O.' I was so humiliated I stomped like a kid."

"On the way home, my wife was sympathetic, even said it was her fault for not choosing Lifebuoy as the family bath soap."

HOW TO STEP UP PROTECTION AGAINST "B.O." (Study Careful)

Test: prove that Lifebuoy not only stops "B.O." but that you can build increasingly better protection against "B.O." by bathing with Lifebuoy every day. Try it for just seven days. See how fresh and clean your skin feels. A daily Lifebuoy bath stops "B.O." faster, gives you longer-lasting protection.

88-Year-Old Man To Be Daddy Again

DES MOINES, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Luis Carrizosa, 88, will become a father again early in December, his 25-year-old wife said yesterday. The new arrival will be the third child since their marriage in January, 1943. Sandra Kay, 2, and Frederick Luis, 1, both have the black hair and olive skin of their father who is half-Cherokee Indian and half-Spanish.

Insulator-Shooters Do $10,000 Damage

OSHAWA, Ont. Oct. 18.—(CP)—Youth firing rifles at power line insulators yesterday broke 36 insulator coverings on the main Niagara-Toronto-Oshawa frequency changer, wrecked a 110,000-volt transmission tower near here and caused damage which may exceed $10,000.

Sentenced to Hang

MONTREAL, Oct. 18.—(CP)—A court of king's bench jury yesterday found Marcel Marotte, 40-year-old hat salesman, guilty of murdering his friend and fellow salesman, Marcel Boivin, by shooting and the tall, slim, one-eyed Montrealer was sentenced to be hanged Jan. 22.

The plane, second in a series of push-button planes, is unique in that it combines all the mechanical applications of control available in aircraft of that type. Officials regard it as an interesting specimen because it has been rigged through an electronic brain to perform in proper sequence all flight steps from take-off to landing.

However, experts such as Col. Benjamin S. Kelsey, who fathered the project, says its true value is that parts of the system, as well as the entire combination can be used to meet specific problems.

One problem now being studied is application of the automatic control to approach and landing procedure for jet planes. This is a critical problem for jets because their fuel supply usually requires that once they have started down from altitude they must continue to a landing. Automatic flight would improve on human performance as well as relieve the pilot of considerable strain.

Alberta Woman's Body Recovered

ATLIN, B.C., Oct. 18.—(CP)—The body of Mrs. Eva Watt of Lethbridge, Alta., was recovered and buried yesterday. She had been missing for two men believed killed when their motor launch burned on the Columbia-Yukon border town.

Burned timbers from the 25-foot launch, near this point, were floating in the lake, but searchers, who were looking for the body, could find no trace of William Jeffery of Whitehorse, or Benny Evans of nearby Carleton Place.

The hunt was begun Monday after the captain of the lake steamer Tully reported the boat failed to arrive at Ben Mac Chree, a Yukon tourist resort.

Mrs. Watt, who is believed to have a daughter living at Lethbridge, was a cook for the White Pass and Yukon railway at its Ben Mac Chree resort. She and the two men left Tully landing Oct. 2 for the 40-mile trip back to the resort.

Jews Denounce Delaying Tactics

LAKE SHUSKON, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Jewish spokesmen yesterday denounced "delaying tactics" suggestions that the Zionists and the Arabs try again to reach an agreement on Palestine outside the United Nations.

They pointed out that time and again during the last 19 years a settlement of the Holy Land problem has been sought in such negotiations and that the whole issue was tossed into the United Nations when the last attempt under British auspices failed in London.

These spokesmen could see no useful purpose in another attempt now except to delay a decision. The formal suggestion for such a conciliation attempt was made by the United Nations—which has been delaying announcement of its position—was sounding out the possibilities of another Jewish-Arab conference. Jewish spokesmen denied that they have been approached.

Plan Automatic Jet-Plane Flights

WILMINGTON, O., Oct. 18.—(AP)—United States air force experts already are planning automatic flight experiments with jet fighters to perform in proper sequence all flight steps from take-off to landing.

Officials are unwilling to discuss such projects but they acknowledged their existence yesterday after the four-engineered Skyraider successfully completed the final leg from Stephenville, Nfld., 1,500 miles away.

The plane, second in a series of push-button planes, is unique in that it combines all the mechanical applications of control available in aircraft of that type. Officials regard it as an interesting specimen because it has been rigged through an electronic brain to perform in proper sequence all flight steps from take-off to landing.

However, experts such as Col. Benjamin S. Kelsey, who fathered the project, says its true value is that parts of the system, as well as the entire combination can be used to meet specific problems.

Tighten Control Of Penitentiaries

OTTAWA, Oct. 18.—(CP)—Major R. B. Gibson, commissioner of penitentiaries, said today that as a result of the break Aug. 16 of three long-term convicts at Port Arthur penitentiary, administration of all Canada's federal penitentiaries had been drastically tightened.

The escape of Mickey McDonald, Toronto; Ulysses Lausier, Windsor; and Nicholas Minile, Ottawa, showed the weakness of the "human element" in the penitentiary and remedial steps were necessary.

Three weeks ago Gen. Gibson announced that Deputy Warden L. H. Millard had been placed on leave pending retirement and that other officers had been dismissed. Disciplinary action has been taken against five others for "slackness" in the performance of their duties.

He said this action had been followed by curtailment of convict privileges and "certain steps" to prevent repetition of the break. He did not disclose details because "convicts, too, can read the newspapers."

Penitentiary farms, also, would be more closely supervised. The three-man penitentiary commission which began its duties Sept. 1 was conducting an exhaustive investigation of conditions in all penitentiaries.

Opera Singer Sued In Affection Case

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Vivian Della Chiesa, opera soprano, yesterday was sued for $25,000 by Mrs. Adrienne Ellis, 34, who alleged the singer was responsible for the loss of her husband's love. Mrs. Ellis and George Ellis, New York, publisher of an advertising man, were divorced in 1946. The Ellis' "lived together happily" until the singer interfered, the suit alleged.

Save-Food Campaign Not Total Success

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The United States yesterday experienced its first post-World War II survey indicated compliance with the president's request was not 100 per cent. A country-wide survey indicated that while some restaurants were complying with banning eggs at breakfast, others were serving them and orders for bacon and sausage as substitutes increased.

The request was made to save food for Europe and lower prices at home.

Abbott Confident Britain to Win

By OTTO E. STURM

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(UPI)—Douglas Abbott, Canadian finance minister, returned from a five-week trip to Europe yesterday and said he was confident that Britain, with some outside help, will overcome her present economic crisis.

Mr. Abbott, arriving on the liner Queen Mary, said he was satisfied that the British "are facing up realistically to the difficulties of the post-war reconstruction period."

"I think they have made substantial progress," he said. "They don't minimize the difficulties still ahead. I am quite satisfied in my own mind that in the long pull they will overcome these difficulties as they have in the past."

"They can't do it alone. They've got to have co-operation from other countries, particularly the United States."

Mr. Abbott attended meetings of the international monetary fund abroad and had discussions with British treasury officials.

Russian Entry In '48 Olympics Still Undecided

MOSCOW, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A decision has been reached here as to whether Russia will participate in the 1948 Olympics.

This was revealed yesterday by sports writer M. Zaitsevsky in the newspaper Soviet Sport. At the same time, he criticized Harold G. Blair, president of the International Amateur Swimming Federation, for alleged discrimination against Russia.

"There does not exist with the 'Swimming Federation' the writer quoted here," wrote the Russian. "But even if he is in his mouth he is not a swimmer."

"BECAUSE RUSSIA became a member of the International Swimming Federation," the writer quoted Blair, "it does not mean she will take part in the Olympic games."

Then the Russian commentator wrote:

"As is known, Soviet athletes have not yet stated their intention regarding the Olympics but Blair tries ahead of time to put in doubt the right of Soviet swimmers to participate."

Broda Enters 10th Season Leafs' Chances Hinge On Fighting Spirit

ST. CATHARINES, Ont., Oct. 10.—(CP)—Chances of Toronto Maple Leafs in the coming National Hockey League campaign depend mainly on whether they can recapture the dynamic will to win which sparked them to their surprise Stanley cup championship last season.

Managing director Conn Smythe admits that so far his team as a whole hasn't shown the fire of last season, but he is optimistic enough to predict that the Leafs, with youth on their side, will find their stride sooner or later in the league race.

Makeup of the club isn't drastic, yet settled but there are at least seven new players.

WALTER (TURK) Broda, the fabulous fast man from Brandon, Man., is a likely to start his 10th season in the Leafs' net. Captain Earl Ageton, a veteran of the Stanley cup, will enter Harry Watson and will Bill Flett on one line with Ted Kennedy, Vic Latta and Calder. Trophy winner Horde Meeker making up a second line.

Broda's line-up of the Leafs is a surprise. If it carries six more forwards, picked from utility men, they will end the season with 100 wins. Ted Kennedy, Vic Latta and Calder. Trophy winner Horde Meeker making up a second line.
